INFORMATIVE SESSION FOR COUNCIL ON THURSDAY

City staff to make presentations on five topics during in-depth session on April 11

MUSCATINE, Iowa – The Muscatine City Council will listen to five presentations from City staff during their in-depth session Thursday (April 11). A discussion on sidewalk cost-sharing options will be followed by a discussion on the appointment, dismissal, and reporting structure for the Muscatine Fire Chief and Muscatine Police Chief.

Also on the agenda is a discussion on biogas utilization at the Water and Resource Recovery Facility, a discussion on communication protocols between elected officials, City department heads, and employees, and a discussion on right of way mowing and maintenance.

Details and additional information on these agenda items can be found by clicking AGENDA and clicking on the April 11 City Council In-Depth Agenda link to view the agenda and/or attachments, or to download a PDF version of the City Council agenda and/or attachments.
